

AGILE | INNOVATIVE | ENDURING

Biography

Jerry Ferguson
Chief Operating Officer

Agile, Innovative, Enduring Solutions

Jerry Ferguson is a proven professional with over 40 years of military, government and business experience with a consistent record of exceeding performance goals and expectations. As a senior leader in the Army, government and commercial business, Jerry has worked closely with Executive, Legislative, Senior Government officials and Senior Officers from all branches of the US military. He possesses a keen understanding of all government operational and acquisition processes. Jerry's experience includes Army command and staff, senior government, and commercial business positions. Resultantly, Jerry has an extensive background in logistics, planning, policy development, process engineering, contracting, supervision, and budgeting. He also exhibits a superb ability to develop, review and revise policies, plans, programs, objectives, procedures, and processes in order to enhance productivity, effectiveness and cost-efficiency. Jerry demonstrates strong written, oral communication, interpersonal, and analytical skills with natural and instinctive troubleshooting competences and experience working collaboratively with personnel at all organizational levels in a diverse environment including external business partners and the government. Jerry is a versatile and adaptable leader, undertaking new responsibilities while maintaining a self-assured and positive approach to the business of our clients.